Kim's BOLDest Topics

From Confidence to PRONfidence!

Business professionals make a giant mistake: Assuming because they are a confident person, they are also confident in business.

Professional confidence or what Kim calls "PRONfidence" and personal confidence are not the same. Assuming they are, can lead to many business mistakes, in addition to, ignoring a common obstacle of Imposter Syndrome

This compelling and often humorous training will help everyone in your group- move from Confidence to PRONfidence and Kick Imposter Syndrome to the Curb!

- Uncover what mistakes are being made in their business because of assuming confidence.
- Stop letting Imposter Syndrome hold them back from speaking up in any professional meeting. (70% of high achievers experience Imposter Syndrome)
- Stop the fear of being "Found Out" and own their professional value!
- Hear what introverts do so effectively (and never give themselves credit for) that everyone can benefit from.
- Speak with a new level of influence and intention.

4 Steps to the Secret Of B.O.L.D. Success

All groups have team members who hold themselves back and get in their own way. Team members who don't speak up often have valuable information to share, that can propel the team. Negative thinking from an individual can be distracting to the entire team. And as a team leader- it can be frustrating to have team members who simply don't take action in their business.

Kim's easy to implement B.O.L.D. steps are a game changer for team members to speak up, take new action, and change their attitude toward their abilities and value.

- B - Gaining clarity, authority, and confidence in who they are BECOMING
- O - OWN their value in every action that represents their business
- L - LEVEL up and step out of their comfort zone
- D - DRIVE & DETERMINATION to not let that inner critic get in their way

When your team uncovers their B.O.L.D- they will each be an unstoppable and integral force in your group
