

What Others are Saying About Kim's Talks:

- T E S T I M O N Y -

Kim brought her unique coaching style to our office, and wow...what an impact she made! Our staff and managers really learned so much about developing our brand identity to propel our small business, and to put our bold foot forward and attract clients. We learned how to impact our audience and gain influence, broadening our database with clients who value our confidence and clarity in what we provide... we are not just one of a million agents, we stand out!! Kim is a great coach with a very laser focused message; Be Bold!

Mary Beth Cogswell Realtor with EXP Realty

Thank you Kim for bringing your event, "Leave your Audience with a B.A.M!" And teaching us how you show up matters. We received amazing feedback from our members, and as a Chamber, that's exactly what we want to hear. Thank you!

Michael Orzech, COO of the Charlotte Area Chamber.

Kim has spent over 25 years in the service industry working with people in a coaching capacity. She has spent over 12 of those actively networking and working with business professionals and entrepreneurs.

As the owner of Live BOLDly, and with a Masters Degree, and coaching certifications, she has studied people, how they work together, and spent countless hours listening and watching how they show up in their businesses.

Kim uses these experiences and adds humor to make her audiences laugh at themselves, while at the same time uncover how to show up BOLD and authentic.

Kim's Motto is Be BOLD Be You- what group won't benefit from that?
